Thank you to our Volunteers!

April is Volunteer Appreciation Month! What would Inglemoor be without its Volunteers?

Answer: A lot less FUN! Our Volunteers pervade every aspect of life here at Inglemoor. Here are a few ways:

Eucharistic Ministers * Religious Services * Bible Reading * Pet Therapy * H.S. Kids * Vets of Foreign Wars * Rosary Makers * YMCA Intergenerational Programs * Livingtones * Rose City Songsters * Shabbat in a Box * Brownies/Girl & Boy Scouts * Just to name a few...

A Look Back at the Fun we had in March!

In our continuing Armchair Travel Program, we went to India! What a beautiful presentation these Ladies and Gent prepared for us! Amazing food, facts and fun! India is now on my Bucket List! We are going to Jamaica in April!

The Sinopoli Family and friends came in one Friday in March to Volunteer. The kids played piano and then engaged some of our residents in a game night!

Poetry Corner

A Child's World
By Leila Haime

A child's fantasy world
Known only to the young.
Acorns, poly-noses,
Glistening Mica
Industriously picked,
Piece by piece off the rocks,
Hoarded treasures of Joyful adolescent years.

Uninhibited, giggling,
Innocence, a stranger
To Falseness, deceit,
Reality, still distant,
Inquisitive faces,
Thirst for knowledge.
Questions freely flowing,
Analyzing, digesting.

Hunger for age's wisdom,
Childhood, gone forever.

Time
By Gertrude Barry (1969)

Whether we live to be nine or ninety,
life is but a flash.

How little we realize the meaning of those words and the purpose of God's wonderful and yet difficult world we live in.

Why do we often wonder when little things go wrong... the road to take,
When there are many; the hills to climb,
when they are long.

If we would stop and learn a Lesson from God's beauty: here on Earth all around us, in the seasons,
Like a baby's breath on earth.
